

LITERATURE

Creative Writing Prompts

Short exercises for story practice.

Read_Master Studio

Original sample content for app testing.

Creative Writing Prompts

Character

- Write about someone who keeps a secret for a kind reason.
- Give the character one habit, one fear, and one object they always carry.
- Let the object become important before the end of the scene.

Setting

- Describe a library after closing time.
- Use three sounds, two textures, and one smell.
- Avoid naming the emotion directly. Let the room create it.

Creative Writing Prompts

Conflict

- Two friends want the same opportunity for different reasons.
- Neither person is completely wrong.
- Write the conversation where they finally say what they mean.

Reflection

- After writing, underline the sentence with the most energy.
- Cut one sentence that explains too much.
- Write a new final line that leaves a question open.